Father Jim's Message

10 thoughts for prayer

Why do we have to pray regularly if God knows all that we hope for and need? Prayer is the method God gives us in full freedom to be able to receive His direction in our lives. (We get to know our Lord in prayer!)

Prayer provides clarity, direction for our choices in life, and peace to accept our daily crosses with trust in His plan.

Prayer is the act of giving my will over to God.

What does praying a daily Rosary do for me? The Holy Rosary (or Mary's Psalter) gives me clarity and protection from vice, despair and evil influence). The Rosary also helps me grow closer to the Blessed Mother, which is the fastest and most secure route to growing closer to her Son, our Lord!

What is one good way I can ask the Blessed Mother for help with my problems? You can say, "Blessed Mother Mary, please ask your Son to help me with _____, or provide me clarity about _____.

Can I use that same method of prayer with Saint Joseph? Yes!

How much Scripture should I be reading daily as prayer? I recommend One page a day.

What books of Scripture are best to read daily as an act of prayer? While all of Scripture is inspired by the Holy Spirit, I recommend the Book of Psalms or any of the four Gospels as a foundation for daily prayer. I would venture into other books only after plenty of time has been spent in the Psalms and Gospels.

What should I focus on in my One page per day prayer of Scripture? Focus on contemplation. See how you can enter into the Scenes of the Holy Gospels and encounter/interact with our Lord or His Disciples as Mental prayer. Let the Psalms mirror your interior disposition. Let them shine light into your interior space as an offer of prayer to the Lord God.

What is the best place to pray? Always pray upright, in a quiet place, whether in Church or at home, or while quietly walking without distracting things around as best you can.

May the Holy Spirit invigorate our missionary zeal and deepen our commitment to sharing the joy of the Gospel with all.
