A message from Father Louiegene

Greetings, everyone! Recently, I received an important call from Bishop Leopoldo C. Jaucian of my home Diocese of Bangued, Philippines. This call came about, due to a clergy shortage in my home Diocese, and a pastoral need at one of the larger parishes in my Diocese.

Bishop Jaucian informed me that he needed me to return immediately to the Diocese for this pastoral assignment. I am very happy to tell you that, thanks to a wonderful conversation between Bishop Jaucian and Bishop Larry J. Kulick, I do not have to return to my home Diocese until after this Christmas.

I am grateful for this brief extension and certainly honored to serve again in my home Diocese in the important role my Bishop is entrusting to me. Even more so, I am grateful I will be able to celebrate another Advent and Christmas Season with all of you!

Please keep me and my home Diocese in your prayers that our clergy shortage will diminish and that, through the power of the Holy Spirit, our vocation efforts will bear much fruit and provide us with many with vocations!

I have really enjoyed my time in ministry here in the United States and in the Diocese of Greensburg. Bishop Kulick has assured me that if the possibility arises, I will be most welcome to return!

Blessings,

Rev. Louiegene Valdez

Dear Parish Family,

As we approach Thanksgiving, I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude for the incredible support you provide to Queen of Angels Catholic School. It is truly a blessing to be part of a community that values faith, learning, and compassion as much as ours does.

Our students and their families, teachers, and staff feel deeply supported by your prayers, encouragement, and generosity. With your partnership, we are able to nurture not only academic growth but also the spiritual and moral development of our students. For this, we are immensely thankful.

This Thanksgiving, I pray that you and your families are surrounded by warmth, love, and the joy of gathering with loved ones. May we all continue to be guided by gratitude and faith, and may our community remain a beacon of hope and kindness.

Thank you for being a vital part of our mission. Wishing you a blessed and joyful Thanksgiving.

God Bless,

Mrs. Filak
