Pastor's Reflection

What loving father or mother would tear up a drawing their child made with love? None would. That is how we should approach our Heavenly Father in prayer. We cannot impress Him with accomplishments—everything we have is already His gift—but we can give Him something simple: a drawing made with love. Think of how you made gifts as a child for your mom, dad, or grandparents when you had no money. That is the posture we bring to God. It means paying attention to the opportunities we are given each day to love others and then offering those moments back to the Father in prayer. A quiet conversation, five minutes spent really listening to someone who has no one to listen to them, a small word of encouragement—these are our drawings. I often forget this. Moments of charity come and go, and I miss the chance to embrace them and offer them back to God at the end of the day. Yet the small acts the Holy Spirit places in our path are exactly that: little drawings we can make for our Father. This takes attention and discernment, not just noticing the loud or obvious needs, but the quiet ones—the person who does not ask for much, the one easily overlooked. See them as a real brother or sister in Christ and let them know in simple ways, “I see you; you matter.” Then bring those moments to prayer and say, “Father, I made this for You today.”

What Father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish, give him a serpent: or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion." If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!" Luke 11:11-13 RSV

Blessing for Mother's Day

Dear Lord,

Pour your goodness and grace upon the women of our community today in a special way. For mothers: fill them with joy and blessing. For those who have lost children: hold them in their sorrow. For those who have hoped for children: surround them with Your love. For those who have lost a mother: may they know Your comfort. For those carrying difficulty on this day: bring them consolation.

Bless all women this day. Thank you for the love they bring to this world, no matter their circumstances or story. Amen.

Now that Spring is here and summer right around the corner we are looking for help with the maintenance of Mary's garden and some general landscaping of the church grounds at various times during the summer. We are currently a small group of dedicated workers who would surely appreciate another volunteer or two. If you look at all of the church grounds much of what you see has been planted in the last several years. There have been many comments about how nice the church grounds look but it takes work to keep it maintained. If anyone has an interest in helping please contact either Scott or Karen Benedict at 724-771-0890.
