Pastor's Notes

Solemnity of All Saints' Day — November 1, 2026

In today's second reading, (1 John 3:1-3) Saint John tells us, “Beloved, we are God's children now... Everyone who has this hope based on Him (Jesus) makes himself pure, as he is pure.” Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints and the Church reminds us of something true and beautiful: you and I were created to become Saints! Sainthood is not a trophy awarded for a life well lived. It is the very purpose for which God created us. The Church honors today all who have met that purpose. No human being was created for anything less, even when they chose less as we all are tempted to do. But we are wounded. Our first parents fell into temptation and chose against God, and we have inherited that brokenness, along with the wounds of our own lives. Becoming who God created us to be is a lifelong struggle. I want to become a saint, and I know that I cannot become one unless I return each day to a childlike faith.

There is a massive difference between being childlike and being childish in our faith. A childlike faith is rooted in humility. It starts everyday with thank you my Lord and my God. It is trying our best to love God with a patient and innocent trust in His plan for us.

A childish faith, on the other hand, treats God as someone who should conform to our wishes. We want Him to grant our favors, support our plans, and agree with whatever we have decided is best. We turn to Him when we need something, but when life is going our way, we may hardly think of Him at all. That is not the relationship our Father desires. He wants us to know Him and love Him, not simply seek what He can do for our will.

The Holy Spirit knows which saints we need in our lives. Through different circumstances and seasons, He allows us to encounter particular Saints who help us on our journey toward heaven. Think about the saints who have been part of your life. Perhaps you prayed to one regularly years ago but haven't spoken to that saint in quite some time. Perhaps another helped you through a difficult season. Those friendships have not disappeared! The saints haven't gone off to heavenly college! They remain in heaven, united with Christ, praying for us and helping us grow closer to our Lord.

So here is my invitation for All Saints' Day: take a moment to say hello in prayer to the saints who have accompanied you throughout your life. Not simply the saints whose names you know, but those who have truly been your heavenly friends for a time. Mine include Saint Joseph, Saint Jude, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, Saint Anthony, Saint Lucy, and Saint James. And, of course, our Blessed Mother Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, who holds a unique place of honor above all the saints!

Pro-Tip: Don't get discouraged: We aren't Saints yet and we have a lot of work we need the Holy Spirit to do in us: Start Here: Today..Simply do more of the things that facilitate your relationship with our Lord and less things that pull you away from Him. You probably know what they are and so do I if we take 20 minutes, think about it and just measure those things for our life.

THE PENNSYLVANIA WE CHOOSE: A CALL TO FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP FROM BISHOP KULICK:

As we celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Diocese of Greensburg and reflect on our responsibilities as Catholics and citizens, Bishop Larry J. Kulick invites all parishioners to read or watch his important pastoral message regarding the upcoming election at the accentonline.org.

In his message, Bishop Kulick encourages the faithful to pray, form their consciences according to Church teaching, and thoughtfully consider issues such as the dignity of human life, educational opportunity, religious freedom, immigration and the common good. He reminds us that while political seasons come and go, our Catholic faith and moral principles remain constant.

Parishioners are encouraged to take time to read the Bishop's full message at the accentonline.org and his previous pastoral letter, Donum Libertatis (The Gift of Freedom), at the accentonline.org/giftoffreedom and to faithfully exercise their responsibility as citizens this November.
